FACTS

QVC and the World-Famous QVC Marks

9. QVC began providing electronic retail services for in-home shopping in connection with its QVC Mark in 1986 and has continued to do so, without interruption, to the present date. In connection with these services, QVC has also used the mark QUALITY VALUE CONVENIENCE since 1986. QVC was founded in 1986 by Joseph Segel and, that same year, the company established a new record in American business history for first-full-fiscal-year sales by a new public company, with revenues of more than $112 million. Since its inception, QVC, Inc.'s business has expanded dramatically. By 1993, QVC had become the No. 1 televised shopping service in sales, profits, and reputation in the United States, reaching more than 80 percent of all U.S. cable homes and three million satellite dishes. In terms of revenue, QVC is ranked as the 2nd largest television network in the U.S. after CBS. QVC.com is among the top-ranked general merchant internet websites, with annual sales of $1 billion dollars. QVC now operates a global business with net revenue in 2006 of $7.1 billion dollars. It sells nationally and internationally both by television shopping channels and by means of interactive internet websites.

10. QVC Studio Park is located in West Chester, Pennsylvania, about 30 miles West of Philadelphia. QVC is the leader in electronic retailing. QVC broadcasts live 24 hours a day, 364 days a year and reaches approximately 96% of all U.S. cable homes, as well as nearly 25.3 million satellite homes equating to over 162 million homes worldwide (over 92 million homes in the United States and over 70 million homes in Japan, Germany and the UK). Over the past 20 years, QVC has shipped over one billion packages worldwide to more than 35 million customers. Annually, QVC ships more than 105 million packages. 42 million people have shopped with QVC over the past 20 years. Every day, QVC presents 1,440 minutes of airtime, handles 550,000 customer services calls and ships 380,000 packages. In 2006, QVC received more than 178 million phone calls in the U.S. alone. QVC receives 200,000 orders per day and handles 7,000 transactions per minute. The primary product categories offered for sale are electronics, beauty, jewelry, household and apparel/accessories. QVC employs over 17,000 people around the world.

11. In addition to its own television studios, QVC has expanded its business to the internet. It launched its website in the fall of 1996. The website, www.qvc.com, currently attracts 6,000,000 distinct visitors monthly and has enjoyed sales of $1,000,000,000 (1 billion dollars) during the past year. It is one of the most popular websites in the world. The QVC.COM website offers over 200,000 diverse products and this website has received numerous awards and accolades. QVC has been the subject of regular attention and comment by the press and the media, and has even been featured on popular TV shows such as The Apprentice. At all relevant times, the QVC website has prominently featured the QVC and QUALITY VALUE CONVENIENCE marks.

12. In connection with its business, QVC has continually spent a great deal of time, effort and expense in creating and protecting its valuable intellectual property rights. QVC began obtaining United States service mark registrations for its QVC Mark and QVC formative marks as early as 1987. Since 1999, QVC, Inc. assigned certain of its marks and registrations to its wholly-owned subsidiary and Co-Plaintiff, ER Marks, Inc. Almost all these marks pertain to in-home shopping via television, telephone and/or the internet. In addition to common law rights in the QVC Marks, Plaintiffs are the owners/authorized users of many QVC or QVC formative federal trademark registrations as well as many other federal registrations. These include the following:

1. Registration No. 1,455,889 for the mark QVC, for providing at home shopping services in the field of general merchandise by means of cable television;
2. Registration No. 2,098,066 for the mark QVC, for interactive retail services provided via computer and television, featuring general merchandise; and
3. Registration No. 1,808,142 for the mark QUALITY VALUE CONVENIENCE, for at home shopping services by means of television.

Such registrations are valid, subsisting and incontestable. Copies of these registrations are attached at Exhibit B. Additionally, Plaintiffs are the owners/authorized users of numerous other marks in the United States, as well as over 40 other countries. A sampling of these marks is listed in Exhibit C.

13. In addition, QVC is the registrant of hundreds of QVC formative domain names including the above-discussed QVC.COM domain name. These also include top level domains and country code domains. These domain names are critical to QVC's national and international business, and even include names QVC has no intention of using but has obtained to protect its own reputation (e.g., ADULTQVC.COM). The QVC Marks are further promoted to consumers through use and advertising on these QVC formative domains. A list of these domain names is attached at Exhibit D.

14. QVC spends millions of dollars each year in advertising and promoting its products and services using the QVC Marks.

15. The QVC Marks are known worldwide and are widely recognized by the consuming public as a designation of source. The use of the QVC Marks identifies services and products as originating from QVC.

16. The extensive advertising and promotion of the QVC Marks, combined with the high value products and services offered by Plaintiffs and the Plaintiffs' great commercial success, have resulted in the QVC Marks acquiring tremendous goodwill and secondary meaning among the consuming public. The QVC Marks are well-known in the United States and throughout the world, and such marks are famous and highly distinctive.

DEFENDANTS' TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT, TRADEMARK DILUTION, UNFAIR COMPETITION, AND OTHER UNLAWFUL ACTS

17. Jersey-Barker and/or the individual defendants, Jersey and Barker operate an interactive online shopping site www.planetqvc.com. Upon information and belief, Jersey-Barker and/or the individual defendants, Jersey and Barker, openly state their goal of competing directly with QVC, a well-known leader in the field of in-home shopping.

18. In order to compete with QVC, Defendants, individually and collectively, registered several domain names that incorporate the famous QVC mark, and use the QVC Marks on the planetqvc.com and planetqvc.info sites, improperly using and trading upon the QVC Marks. Such use is without authorization by Plaintiffs. A copy of the planetqvc.com website is attached at Exhibit E. The QVC Marks are prominently depicted on the website. The term QVC also appears in a thicker font than the “planet” component on the planetqvc.com website.

19. Defendants have also registered the domain name planetqvc.info which incorporates the famous QVC Mark, and uses, without authorization, the QVC Mark on the planetqvc.info site, improperly using and trading upon the QVC Mark. The planetqvc.info site provides links to numerous goods and services, including shopping services which compete with those offered by QVC. Such use is without authorization by Plaintiffs. A copy of the planetqvc.info website is attached at Exhibit F. The QVC Mark is prominently depicted on the website and the term QVC appears in a thicker font than the “planet” component and also appears in the same stylized format used by QVC.

20. On planetqvc.com’s website, the QVC Marks are used without Plaintiffs’ authorization in connection with the advertising and retail of retail sales of various products. Plaintiffs and Defendants offer competing products for sale on their respective websites.

21. Defendants’ use of the QVC Marks is confusingly similar to the famous QVC Marks. Defendants’ use of the QVC Mark shares the unique and famous QVC component. Defendants’ website also incorporates the entirety of the Plaintiffs’ unique and famous mark, QUALITY VALUE CONVENIENCE. Defendants’ use is nearly identical to the QVC Marks and conveys the same commercial impression, especially because they are used by Defendants in the advertising and sale of competing retail services and products.

22. Defendants' confusingly similar use of the QVC Marks is being used by Defendants to enable them to compete directly and unfairly with the products and services offered by Plaintiffs under the famous QVC Marks. Defendants use the QVC Marks for the same type of retail services offered to the same classes of consumers as Plaintiffs.

23. Defendants' use of marks confusingly similar to the QVC Marks as used in connection with retail services, is likely to cause confusion as to the source and origin of Defendants' products and services and is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive the public and the trade as to the source or sponsorship of Defendants' products and services and to mislead the public into believing that Defendants' products and services emanate from, are approved or sponsored by, or are in some way associated, affiliated, or connected with Plaintiffs.

24. Defendants' use of marks confusingly similar to the QVC Marks in connection with retail services, falsely conveys that Plaintiffs are affiliated with Defendants or otherwise misrepresents the nature, characteristics, and qualities of Defendants' products, services, and commercial activities. Defendants' use of the QVC Marks, upon information and belief, actually deceived or has the capacity to deceive a substantial segment of the audience.

25. Defendants' website planetqvc.com includes a logo for BBBOnLine Privacy and the Trust-e site privacy statement logo. The use of these logos suggests that such site is secure for online purchases and financial transactions, and that the site security was verified by these entities. On information and belief, Defendants are not authorized to use these logos, and this is a false and misleading statement. Such an unauthorized statement is likely to deceive or confuse purchasers, including existing customers of QVC, into thinking the infringing website is verified by entities known for ensuring online security.

26. Defendants' infringing activity as described above weakens the unique association which has heretofore existed between the QVC Marks and Plaintiffs' services, thereby lessening the capacity of the Plaintiffs' trademarks to identify and distinguish their services. Defendants' unauthorized activity is likely to dilute the distinctive quality of the famous QVC Marks and injures Plaintiffs' reputation as the source of high quality services.

27. Upon information and belief, Defendants' adoption and use of the infringing QVC Marks was and is willful and represents a deliberate and willful attempt to trade unlawfully upon the goodwill associated with the famous QVC Marks.

28. Defendants' activities as described herein cause and have caused Plaintiffs irreparable harm and significant injury.

(a) Using the term QVC or the wording "QUALITY VALUE CONVENIENCE," or any other mark, term, domain name or title confusingly similar to the term QVC or the wording "QUALITY VALUE CONVENIENCE," in connection with marketing, sale, offering for sale, advertisement, or promotion of retail goods or services; and
